

ALEXANDRIA. VA TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7.

AN OPPONENT of Gen. Lee being asked the other day the cause of his opposition, replied that the General had been in Congress for several years, but that so far as he could see had done very little for this district Weil, no body familiar with congressmen and congressional proceedings doubts the ability and efficiency of Representatives Breckinridge, Crisp, Mills, Holman, McKinley, Payson, or any of the other leaders of either party in the U. S. Houss of Rapresentatives, but if any one of them has done more for his district than Gen. Lee has done for his, he is not aware of it, nor does the journal of the House, show it. And besides, every body familiar with Senator Barbour's term in the House knows that he got every thing for the district, when he wesite representative, that was possible for any other man to get, and he doesn't hesitate to say that General Lee has got a good deal more than he was able to get. And then, toc, General Williams of Obio, a republican member of the House military committee, the man who killed the Mount Vernon Avenue bill, speaks in the bighest terms of Gen

Lee's efficiency, says his side of the House

niways knows there is no boodle behind any of the special measures the General advocates, that his support of any measure has a great deal to do with the fate thereof, and that he has great and well merited influence with the republican majority of the House.

If people would know more they would talk

RECKLESSNESS of assertion is a republican characteristic; but a more glaring proof of that fact was never differed than that of last week, when ex-Congressman Horr of Michigan, addressing a large audience in his State, boldly asserted that the production of nails in this country was the result of the protective tariff, as no nai's were made here before the imposition of a high tariff, a statement which every even ordinarily informed man in his audience knew to be grossly false. Republican stumpers presume upon the ig norance of the men they address; and, unfortunately for the latter, they have too much ground for such presumption. What is of more concern to the people of Virginia, is the fact that republican speakers here have no more regard for their intelligence than Mr. Horr has for that of those of his State, for they make statements no less iccorrect than his, and, worst of all, some of the democratic speakers here don't know enough about the tariff to detect and expose the gross errors of such statements.

SINCE RICHMOND went astray on the subject of the State debt, that city has always been peculiar. When she entertains and does honor to American soldiers who stormed her gates during the war between the States, and who still retain their animosity against her, people may criticise her taste, but overlock it upon the ground of her overweening desire to let bygones be bygones. But when she goes ous of her way to pay distinguished respect, not to an American soldier who fought for the Union, but to a foreigner who had no | 41 years. quarrel of his own, and who, unlike his distinguished countryman, Lafayette, came over here and joined her enemies, the stronger side, in an internecine struggle, she merits and receives the just censure of every right-thinking man in the country, northern as well as southern.

MR. ATKINSON, a republican, who holds a seat in Congress from West Virginia to which a democrat was elected, acknowledges the truth of the detected conspiracy to coloniz . West Virginia with negroes from North Carelina. He admits that he has been in correspondence on the subject, but says it is "a startling piece of information to any one with a thimbleful of brains, that the encouragement of industrious and reliable colored workmen to come to West Virginia is an election job." The letters in the case wrote them, that Mr. Atkinson's testimony is no more reliable than that of the men who swore he was elected, though the election officers swore he was not.

THE LINCOLN INDEPENDENT CLUB of Philadelphia have prepared an address to President Harrison, demanding that Senator Quay, the chaliman of the national republican committee, be turned down. But by a remarkable oversight they say never a word of either Mr. Clarkson or Mr. Dudley, Mr. Q lay's effective coadjutors, and both infinitely worse than he is, nor of Commissioner Raum, who is still allowed by Mr. Harrison to retain his place in the government's service, though proved to be guilty of corruption at which Mr. Quay would have revolted.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7, 1890. Some of the tony negroes of this city Douglass, Langston, Wormly, Purvis and others, being decirous of having cottages at some one of the summer resorts on the Potomac, spplied to Mr. Renneger, pro-prieto: of Uniton Beach, on the Maryland shore, for that purpose. At first Mr. Renneger was disposed to accede to their request and sell them lots, but finding that that would be disegreeable to the people living near by, he declined to grant it. The ne-groes of this city are now talking about his refusal, and say that with a few more Langstons in Congress no more such indignities will be attempted upon them.

Senator Hiscock and ex-Senator Platt are trying to arrange a scheme by which Secretary Tracy of the Navy will be elected U.S. Senator from New York in the place of Mr.

Evarte, who has declined a re-election. $1,000 for counsel fees in the contested election case of Langston vs. Venable, says the reason he brought the suit in Petersburg and not here was the fact that the court docket here is so full that the case could not have been reached in years, whereas in Peters-burg, where he did bring it, it will be tried at the next term of the court. Ex-Congressman Yates of North Carolina, now here, says that Lindsey, the chief North Carolinian engaged in the recently detected plot by which to colonize close northern States with negroes from North Carolina, is a political desperado, and is the man, duiing the famous Kirk-Holden fight in that State in reconstruction times, whom the late Senator Pool suggested as the one to beat down democracy by shooting the leaders; and that Huston's statement that the tier. proposed colinization was a philanthropic movement is absurd, as the devil bimse f wou d just as soon engage in a philanthropic movement as Lindsey. Lindsey is here also. He says that Huston has no regard for the truth when he says that when he proposed to lay the scheme bfore the President he meant the president of a local club, for that Buston rold him he would lay it before the Attorney General and the President of the United States. Senator Faulkner of West Virginia is also here to day. He says the white working men of his State are considerably excited by the discovery of the plot referred to as the intention of it was not only to obrain a republican majority in the State in cial misfortunes. 1892, but to make the negro colonists citizens and permanent residents of the State, and competitors with the white miners and other white laborers there.

The receipts at the Treasury Department tc-lay from customs alone amounted to more than a million and a half dollars. They will be more than that a day when collected under the new tariff bill which went into effect yesterdey. The worst of it is that as the beaviest tariff tax is laid upon such articles as poor people use, the most of this customs money is exacted of poor pec-

Col. Jack Brown of Georgia, a republican, but whose democratic news about his State has always, heretofore, proved reliable, says he does not think General Gordon will be elected Senator, nor does he think Smith, Havnes or Norwood will be, but he does thick that either Congresman Crisp or Mr.

Pat Calcoun will be.
The Comte de Paria, the Duc de Orleans, their suite, and the following gentlemen as Gen. O O. Howerd, Gen. Butteran eccor', Gen. O O. Howerd, Gen. Butter-field, Co. Coppenger and Col. Nicholson, arrived here this afternoon and put up at the Arlington Hotel. They are on their way to Richmond. Virginian here to day, an ex-officer of the Navy, in talking of the proposed enter-tainment of the Comte de Paris at Rich-mond, said Virginians were formerly the highest, but he feared they were now the lowest people in the country. He said the count had not only volunteered to come over here to fight against them, the weaker pary, in a cause in which he was not interested, but that in his book on the war between the States, he had invariably taken the northern eide and always attributed Confederate victories to "overwhelming numbers," when everybody else knew that was not and could not have been so. Mrs. Daniel Toleom and her elster, Miss Nannie Botte, of Stafford, had a narrow escape Saturday while out driving. They were going down a steep hill when the horses became frightened and ran off, throwing both ladies out. When they were found some time afterward they were unable to walk.

The case of Cadet McConnico, charged with the killing of Cadet Taliaferro, came before the grand jury at Lexington yesterday. After examining the witnesses who testified at the coroner's inquest the grand jury failed to find a true bill, and McConnico was discharged. McConnico's father has been in Lexington for several days past. He will shortly return to Texas and take his son with him.

SHOT HER BROTHER-IN-LAW. - A dispatch from Birmingbam, Ala., says: Edward T. Martin, President of the East Birmingham Land Company, was shot and dangerously wounded to-day by a woman who says she is Mrs. Clarence D. Martin, wife of a brother of the man she shot. Martin had been talking to the woman on the sidewalk in front of his office. He turned and walked away, the woman following. They had gone only a few steps when she drew a piscol from a bundle and fired. The bullet bit Martin in the back. The woman enapped the pistol again, but it failed to fice. The woman was locked up and refused to make any statement. Two years ago Clarance D. Martin went to Texas, where he led a Bohemian existence, it is said. Six months ego he returned to Birmingham, and soon afterward the woman who did the shooting to-day arrived here. As soon as she came young Martin left the city and his brother had an interview with the woman. She left and did not return until a few days ago. This morning she called on her brother-in-aw, and it is thought demanded money, which was prob ably refused. She met him again at his office in the afternoon, and the shooting followed. Martin will probably recover.

FOUND HER HUSBAND -Mrs. W. W. Houghton, of New York, is in Augusta, Ga, unearthing a mystery. Her husband de serted her in 1861, and she has found him living with another wife in Gulveston, Texas, in comfortable circumstances. She travelied from town to town and at last found her runaway busband. Mrs. Houghton demanded of him her share of his property for her support. She says Houghton re-fused to accede to her demand, claiming that the property was bought with bls second wife's money. That is what has brought her back to Augusta-to trace the records to prove that the second wife never had and never inherited any money. Mrs. Houghton says while she was in Galveston her husband cruelly assaulted and attempted to murder her and he is now being prosecuted for it.

NEW YORK, Cetober 7 -The stock market was still moderately active this morning and presentel a strong front at the opening, first prices being from 4 to 34 per cent, better than last evening's final figures as a rule. The early dealings, however, were feverish and quite irregular, with a general drooping tendency, the only real strength being in the industrials, though the alvances in them were as limited as the loves in the regular list. Late in the hour the whole list developed a strong tone and prices were carried up fractional amounts all slong the line, regaining the early losses and something in addition. The market became quite dull, and at 11 o'cleck it was fairly steady at small fractions better than the opening prices.
